Stonewall Falls photographed by Greg Heil

Leader: Marie Dunkle

Outing Description: This will be about a 6-mile moderate hike with variety terrain. It includes several water crossings where you will need to get through water above boot level, so be prepared with extra shoes for the crossing. Stonewall Falls is a beautiful setting in a National Forest. The trail is designated for mountain biking, but there are few bikes, and it's great for hikers. We will explore, stop and eat lunch along the way, and the hike should last about 4 hours.

Hike Location: Stonewall Falls, near Tiger, Georgia

Meeting Time and Place: Meet at 10:00am at the Tiger Mart on Old Hwy 441 in Tiger, GA. We will carpool to the trailhead.
